Update from Leonard Isodo, October 29, 2014

- Radio program has continued whereby I have aired 26 messages (26 hours) on radio talking to potentially 6 million people each morning. This month, six individuals have called following the program asking to give their lives to Christ. Others have called asking for prayer. I have also received calls asking for personal and family counseling, and I am working to reach these people.
- God has also opened doors for me to visit the prisoners every Sunday, we did not only give the word of God, but we celebrated for the Uganda independence anniversary, 9th October, with a lunch, and gave them soap, and toilet papers. Two inmates came to the lord. The occasion was attended by top government officials like the LC-V, RDC and the district Prisons commander of Ngora district.
- Door to door evangelism has also continued, I have visited 18 homes and spent time talking to people in their homes and more than ten people called on the name of the Lord.
- Ministry to the elderly has also continued, I have made visits to a few old men one who is 85, the widow of Rev Isaac Egolet, where Dr Krabbendam preached in his funeral early this year.
- Prayer requests for the ministry: Bibles in the local language and some in English especially for the inmates and Christian literature. Also pray that I will have one easy to use laptop and better motorbike because the one I am using is getting used up.
