Happy New Year,

ANNUAL REPORT 2014, FOR REV LEONARD ISODO

Activities involved in:

- Home to home evangelism, I made 72 visits to individual homes this year.
- Radio ministry, I did 103 presentations on radio in 2014, covering the large part of eastern region of Uganda with good reception. And listeners called back. Many people also gave their lives to Christ.
- Prison ministry, Visited prisons nine times.
- Visiting of the elderly. Visited several elders 14 times.
- Crusades and preaching in funerals. We had four crusades; I cannot recall all the funerals I have been but at least a little more than 100 of them
- Dedication of children and wedding of couples. Four weddings and forty children or a little more presented to the Lord in different church pulpits.
- Counseling of families into reconciliation. Nine families were visited for marital counseling
- Mobilization of food items for distribution to Prison inmates in Ngora prison.
- Distribution of eye glasses to persons with poor eyesight. Given out 425 eye glasses to the same number of people and this has turned out to be a tool for evangelism as well. On 31st December one man came to the Lord in spite of this eye glasses ministry.
- Weekly interdenominational fellowships. 52 days of interdenominational fellowship held in different homes of brethren in Ngora.
- Visiting of schools and institutions of higher learning. Have been out five times in schools this year. An estimate of between 500-600 hundred people came to the Lord through this ministry this year. And we thank the Lord and all those who supported us here in different ways.

CHALLENGES:

- Prisoners need Bibles in the local language and English and this is the case in every prison.
- We need to train grassroots evangelist to do the same.
- Blankets and sheets for prisoners. (Hayes Note: We generally try to get folks to buy their own Bibles and it means more to them if they invest in one. But prisoners have no access to funds to buy a Bible plus the Ugandan prison system only provides the yellow jump suits. Underwear, sheets, blankets, and hygiene items must come from family members or Christian ministries. If you would like to assist in supply such, just clearly mark your donation for this purpose. Also, I have access to a very good, simple English Bible for prisoners that costs me
- Shelters for elderly, I pray that the churches take up this need.
- Food and medication for elderly.
- Follow up of those who come to the Lord especially prisoners. Good news is that one Prisons officer came to the Lord on 27th December and is seeking for opportunity to know the Lord.
- The church motorbike that I use is now needed by the new pastor and so I should look for a personal one to help me enhance this travel.
- Digital projector for films. And a laptop for me as well to ease communication.
- Prayer partners to continue lifting this ministry to the Lord.

Sincerely

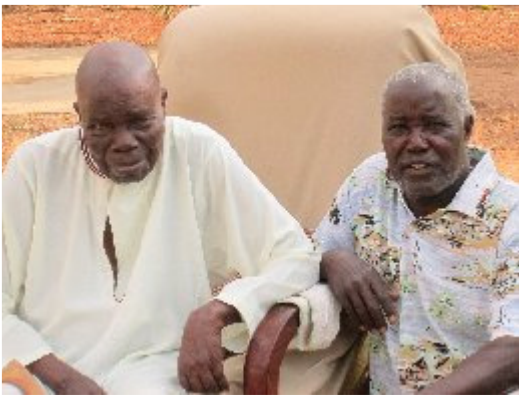

Rev Leonard Isodo
